Country Heritage Agricultural Society Board of Directors Nomination Form

Country Heritage Agricultural Society (Society) is governed by a Board of 12 elected Directors. It is a policy-setting board which directs and supports the operations and success of Country Heritage Park.

This form complies with the Society's by-laws (Election of the Board 7.3) and the Nomination and Election Policy, as well as the Membership Policy.

Eligibility for Nomination to the Board of Directors:

Both Nominees and Nominators must be members in good standing of the Society at the time of nomination, as defined in the Membership Policy. Members may nominate themselves.

A Call for Nominations will be issued to all Society members in good standing, as part of regular member communications. Information will be available on the Country Heritage Park website from January 1 to March 1 each year.

In addition to supporting the mission of the Society, Nominees must be willing and able to meet the length of term and time commitments of the position, including active participation on the working committees of the Board. Directors serve without remuneration.
